About RQM

Rubu' Qarn Music is a Sharjah-grown national institute providing formal music education to people of all ages.

We are founded on the conviction that the journey of music facilitates personal development, creating a community of expressive, well-rounded individuals.

Certified Instructors

Our instructors have over 10 years of experience performing and teaching.

High Quality Music Education

We focus on building our participants' musical foundation using educational practices that adhere to international standards.

Community-Oriented Environment

RQM is a space where families and individuals can meet like-minded people, while sharing the joy of learning music.

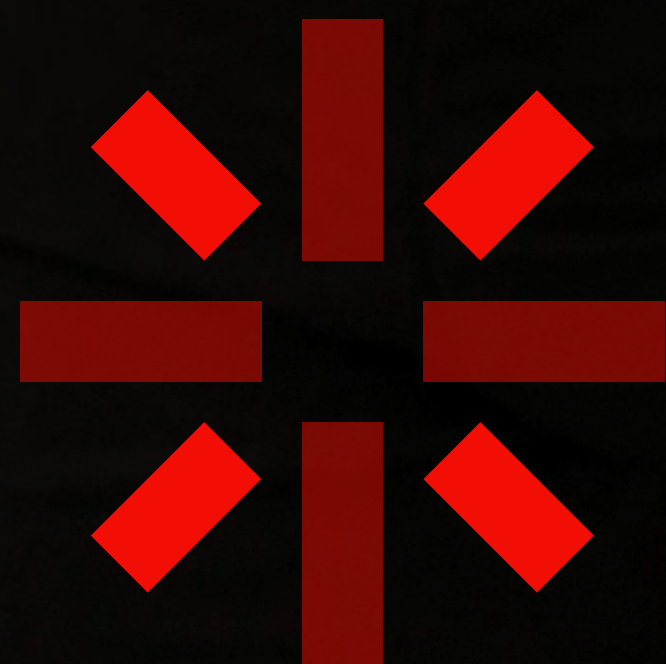

International Music Certifications

We connect students with both the ABRSM and Trinity College London examination boards, allowing them to become certified musicians.

Cultivating Artistry in the UAE

In alignment with the UAE's national strategy for elevating our communities, RQM aims to make music education accessible to all ages and skill levels.
